Janad, and the scenes of distress were harrowing.

"One man, as reported in the Commercial Advertiser, lost his mind, and rushed into the streets gibbering like a mad man. The police started to acrest him, but the pitying crowd interfered and he was taken off by his friends.

The extremity of the crisis developed one curious phase. It brought into the street a great many ladies who were operating in stocks and who were forced to the front to consult with their brokers. One lady came into a power's their loss as to the crowd, and fren

Friday night was a night of dread all through Friday hight was a night of dread all through the city. No one knew what the mext day would bring forth. The main sear was that many leading houses had failed, and that these failures would be announced the next morning in the exchange and their stocks sold under the rules. It was felt, too, that if instant money relief was not had, the next day would bring renewed disaster. The sales of Friday had been the larguest ever known in the history of the exchange, aggregating 800,000 shares. Telegrams were poured into Washington. Delegations of bankers and business men weut

As between Blaine and His is a Blaine state, but at the Chicago the remains with a hatchet or used a handand music the outgoing of a fraudulent dark horse, and by many he was con- rated for its highly moral civilization, it is sidered a very available one.

Mr. Blaine, the premier, is so well known that we need only recall the lead ing facts of his busy life. He was born in Washington county Pennsylvania, in 1830, and as soon as he left a Pennsylvania college he became an editor and went to Maine. He was elected to the le lature in 1859, and to congress in 1864, and has served ever since that time in ne nouse or the other of the federal other articles, destined | Constitution has more than once taken | Mr. Blaine is a man of great wealth, of social qualities, and he will no doubt be given much of his time to foreign questions but he will have no difficulty in mastering the few that will come before him. He is in the cabinet for other reathe result of a bargain between a sons, and he will be apt to make the most of his new office.

Of Wayne McVeagh, the new attorney general, not much can be said, because is active life has been spent as a lawyer and private citizen. He is a son-in-law of Simon Cameron, but he has never been on good political terms with the Camerons. He is inclined to be a re former, and to despise bossism. He is a good and successful lawyer, a fine speaker, and his reputation would be untarnished had he not gone to Louisiana as a 'visiting statesman" to steal the vote of that state for Mr. Hayes. He went with General Harlan and Judge Lawrence, and the part he took in the great frau has never been accurately defined. Outide of the Louisiana business he has he reputation of an honest and eminently respectable man-a man rather tarchy and over-nice, about whom there nothing at all phenomenal.

ife as the editor of a country newspaper He drifted to New York city and into politics, and eight years ago this month ne was appointed postmaster of the meropolis. He will make practical, efficient and valuable head of our postal affairs, and his appointment i credit to the president.

We are gratified to observe a revived interest in the You g Men's Christian association. Our young friend, Mr. White, is energetic and untring in his duties as the newly elected president. And we are especially pleased to see prominent business men maying in the matte. This relieve what, in our judgment has been the chief difficulty hitherto the want of experience and financial backing.

Doubtless the Young Men's Christian associations of the contry are, like every other human institution liable to be abused, and capable of degenerating. We have heard of evils connected with them in other cities, and we do not wonder that the conservative type of Christianity which largely obtains among our churches should be inclined to look somewhat doubtfully upon such endeavors. But it seems to us that the true course is to take effective measures for guarding against the misery and st sponsible for nearly of all the laws of health them, and disease wor over us and death would treme old age. I noticed a lessaning of the pain at once; I began to mend, applies in five weeks I was able to be at faunch in two months I became perfect aurical in two months I became perfect aurical in two months I became perfect aurical have so continued to this case is more only natural that such a since the month of the caused me to investigate most thoroughly. I carefully examined fields in medicine never before explored. I sought the cause of physical order and disorder, happiness and pain, and I found the kidneys and pain, and I found the kidneys and liver to be the governors, whose motions regulate the entire system. It is now conceded by the ablest physicians in every lard, and by eminent scientists the world over, that "Bright's Disease" is the result of 'blood poisoning. This poisoning is brought about by wasted and unbealthy kidneys that permit the poison to get into the blodd, instead of throwing it from the system. But it is equally evident to all who have studied into the effects and have become conversant with the facts, that a disordered state of the kidneys and disordered state of the kidneys and Po Colonel W. Tom Paine,
Jack Harris,
T. W. Taylor,
L. C. Jones,
W. P. Curtis, to all who have studied into the effects and have become conversant with the facts, that a disordered state of the kidneys and liver produces most of the common complaints and pains which afflict the human race, and they can be traced to this source just as certainly as can Bright's Disease. To purify a stream we must go to its source, and to cure a disease we must remove the the cause. It being true, therefore, that NINE-TENTHS OF ALL RUMAN AILMENTS are caused by diseased kidneys or liver, the only certain way to cure these troubles is by treating the organs which cause them. How intimately the kidneys are associated with the entire system may be understood from the fact that over 1,000 ounces of blood pass through them every hour, or nearly one ton in the course of 24 hours. This vast mass of living fluid is sent by a most perfect system of distribution to every part of the body, and if the kidneys are diseased the impurities that are in the blood are not removed, and hence pass through the veins, carrying disease in some one of its many terrible forms. The horrors which accompany most of the diseases caused by disordered kidneys and liver cannot be described in print, while the dangers surrounding them are even greater than the agony. And yet a person may be troubled NINE-TENTHS OF ALL HUMAN AILMENTS without knowing what the diseases are that have attacked him. If any of the following things are noticed about the urine, it shows that these organs are out of order: A red that these organs are out of order: A red deposit, a secun upon the surface, an unusual thickness or thinness, a very dark or a very light color, a burning sensation in passing, a frequent desire to urinate, an unusual odor, a retention of the urine, or a desire to urinate and inability to do so. Having found this great truth; I saw clearly

THE CAUSE of my recovery. The simple vegetable leaf I had used was a food and restorer to my well-nigh exhausted kidneys and liver. It had come to them when their life was had come to them when their life was nearly gone, and by its simple yet powerful influence had purified, strengthened and restored them and saved me from death Realizing the great benefit which a knowledge of this truth would give to the world I began, in a modest way, to treat those afflicted, and in every case I found the same happy results which I had experienced. Not only this, but many who were not conscious of any physical trouble, but who, at my suggestion, but who, at my suggestion began the use of the remedy which had saved my life, found their health steadily improving and their strength continually increasing: So exists toward proprietary medicines, and that such prejuduce is too often well founded, but the value of a pure remedy is no less because it is a proprietary medicine. Because Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure saved my life before it became a proprietary medicine, is it reasonable to suppose that it will not cure others and keep pose that it will not cure others and keep still more from sickness now that it is sold with a government stamp on the wrapper? Such a theory would be childish. How to restore the health when broken and how to keep the body perfect and free from disease must ever be man's highest study. That one of the greatest revelations of the present day has been made in ascertaining the true seat of health to be in the kidneys and liver, all scientists now adm't, and i can but feel that the discovery which I have described to you, if deatined to prove the greatest, best and most reliable friend to those who suffer and long for happiness, as well is to those who desire to keep the joy they now posses. was ppearance, had lost all its vitality What remained had a brash, wiry appeaance. I have used three bottles of the six I purchased, and the result has been that I y hair has regained all its original vigor at health. It has become thick and glos y, while formerly it was apparently dead. I have now stopped using it, for there see so no necessity for a continuance. The balance of the Restorative I promised to some of n y lady friends who are highly delighted in its use. We consider the Croole Hair Restorer the best remedy for the buman hair ever

After thoroughly testing your "Louisiana Creole Hair Restorer" in preventing hair from falling out, it gives me pleasure to state that I have found it a complete success, accomplishing all it proposes. I have seen it frequently tried by others with complete satisfaction. I think you have succeeded in introducing to the public the most valuable preparation for the hair ever originated. Very respectfully, ROLFE S SAUNDERS,

I have no hesitation in recommending four "Creus Hair Restorer" as an invaluate prevanction for promoting the growt fee hair, prevening its falling out, an estoring it to its naing all color, and, at the restoring it to its natural color, and, at the same time, imparting a repearance, which makes it the and glossy apporten hair that I have ever known green spectfully, MRS SARAH W. FALL Re-Memphis, Tenn.
Gen'tlemen: I take pleasure in bearing testimony to the great work of your "Louisiana Creole Hair Restorer," which is in reality all its name implies. I can confidently recommend it for restoring the hair to its natural color, preventing its falling out, and imparting to it a fine glossy appearance—rendering it invaluable as a hair dressing, aside frem: its restorative properties, and possessing the great advantage of never staining the most delicate fabric. Respectfully, MRS. E. F. COWDON.

Memphis, Tennessee.

Gentlemen: You request me to state what I have observed of the results following the use of your "Louisiana Creole Hair Restorer." Hitherto I have uniformly declined giving certificates for any patent preparation. In this instance, however, I think is night to state the fact that I know your preparation saved a friend of mine from threatened belidness. The falling off of the hair was arrested by a few applications; then the thin gray locks began to assume their natural color; and now, after using four bottles, there is a general and healthy growth of soft and silky hair all over the head. I do not hesitate to say, with a number of my friends who have used, or observed its use, that your "Louisiana Creole Restorer" is a success. Respectfully, PANAMA, February 24—The tenth of February will be remembered in Antiqua as the occasion of frost, the heaviest in the memory of men, occasioning damage, the like of which has no record in the history the country since the conquest by the Spaniards. The cold wave seems to have come from the north, apparently traversing the Candillors through stexico. Tropical fruitand crops withered away at its touch, as before a devouring flame. In the department of Sacatepeques every hacienda has been more or less injured. The force of the disaster fell on that part of the valley where is situated the estate of Retana, taking in a portion of the valley which contained the most numerous adhiguly, cultivated estates of the department. The new and beautiful estates in Canta of Calvarico have also suffered, but the loss is less and can be more easily repaired than on older and more prosperous estates. The Wyoming Disaster.

Cheyenne, March 6.—Owing to the excitement at Aimy it is impossible to obtain full particulars of the disaster reported yesterday. It is now thought there are more men in the mine than were at first reported. A faint hope is held out that some of the white men in the mine fied to a portion not on five. The flames in ervening prevented rescuers from reaching them last night. The scene at the mouth of the shaft is described as putful. The two families of the white men who are still in the mines are frantic, while the Chinamen throng about waiting piteously for their lost friends and relatives. Most of the population of Evenston are on the grounds. Miners from the surrounding pits are working hard. Justiness of all kinds for twenty miles around is entirely suspended. 26 octio-dly sun the Sin un hir bro Notices in New Lace Cur-CHAMBERLIN, BOYNTON & CO.

ATHENS, GA., February 22, 1878.—Sir: My child, five years old had symptoms of words. I tried calconel and other worm medicines, but failed to expel any. Seeing Mr. Bain's certificate, I got a vial of Worm Oil, and the first dose brought forty worms, and the second dose so many were passed I did not count them.
